Dear Foundation Trust Members,

Mel's weekly round-up: Review of 2023

As we begin 2024, this week's round-up reflects on another rewarding year at the Trust as we share a review of 2023.

The film shows that as a teaching trust we never stand still. Constantly looking at new technology, innovations, and ways of working that will improve the lives of our patients and the care that we can provide to them.

Last year was no exception, with many highlights to celebrate, so take a few minutes to remind yourself of what makes Bradford Teaching Hospitals a great place for patients and colleagues alike. There's plenty to be proud of and you make it happen, so thank you for all that you do.

Happy New Year.
